Questions to Consider

CAWG
Campus Assessment Working Group

- Are we effectively using these media to communicate with students?
- What could explain the decrease in phone/email/IM with parents?

Communication with Parents

CAWG
Campus Assessment Working Group

Percent

How often do you and your parent(s) discuss:

	Daily	Weekly	Monthly	Never
Physical and emotional well-being	22	39	27	12
Social life (e.g., friends, significant others, roommates)	18	43	29	9
Academics	17	50	28	6
Involvement (e.g., organizations, sports, jobs, internships)	17	43	30	10
Future (e.g., career, graduate school, future planning)	11	37	45	7
Finances	8	37	47	9

Significant Positive Correlation

How often do you and your parent(s) discuss:

	I can have a positive impact on my community.	Small actions can make a big impact in solving the problems of the world.	I feel optimistic about my long-term future.
Physical and emotional well-being	+	+	+
Social life	+	+	+
Academics	+	+	+
Involvement	+	+
Future	+	+
Finances	+

Questions to Consider

CAWG

Campus Assessment Working Group

- What topics are students talking about with their parents related to physical and emotional well-being?
- What is it about frequency of communication with parents that relates to positive feelings about the future?

Engaging in Diversity Activities

Questions to Consider

CAWG

Campus Assessment Working Group

- How can we help students translate classroom experiences of talking about diversity into out-of-class life?
  - What can we do to encourage students to participate in campus-organized discussions on racial/ethnic issues?
