Brief Description of Institution

As the state of Maryland's flagship university, and only public research university inside Washington, D.C.'s Beltway, the University of Maryland, College Park (UMD), is committed to reimagining teaching and learning, advancing the public good, investing in people and communities, and taking on humanity's grand challenges. We pride ourselves on the talent of our faculty, who include Nobel laureates, Pulitzer Prize winners and members of the national academies. This esteemed group also provides leadership in pivotal fields such as quantum science, climate change, artificial intelligence and national security. Through a strategic partnership with the University of Maryland, Baltimore called, "Mpowering the State" UMD is able to boost educational and research opportunities as well as offer combined degree programs. UMD is a top producer of Fulbright scholars and offers an unparalleled student experience with more than 300 academic programs, 25 living-learning programs and 400 study abroad programs. As the nation's first Do Good Campus, UMD offers unique and ambitious courses, fellowships, certificate programs and coaching to support social entrepreneurship and support students looking to make an impact across the globe.
